Coffey County 4-H Club Days held in Lebo

LEBO — Members of all Coffey County 4-H clubs participated in the Coffey County 4-H Club Days Feb. 22 in Lebo.

4-Hers could be found exhibiting their musical talents in the areas of instrumental solo (junior and senior divisions), instrumental ensemble, vocal solo (jr. and sr. divisions), and vocal ensemble. They have 10 minutes in each category to play or sing two selected pieces. All clubs are able to participate in a model meeting, which depicts a typical monthly meeting of a 4-H club. The group is comprised of club membership and leaders.

This year, Tip Top 4-H Club received Top Blue which allows them to advance to Regional Club Days. Blue Ribbon 4-H Club received Alternate Top Blue. Other clubs participating in model meeting were Liberty, Stringtown Bombers and Smilin' Thru 4-H Clubs. Each received a blue ribbon.

4-Hers work very hard on writing and preparing talks. Project talks are for 7-to-11-year-olds and public speaking is for those ages 14 and older.

March 8 - 14

25 years ago (1995)

* Stephen Singular is a New York Times best-selling author whose articles have appeared in The New York Times Magazine, Inside Sports, and Rolling Stones Magazine among other publications. He was born in Burlington and spent the first four years of life here until his family moved to Lyndon where he graduated in 1968.

* The Kansas Legislature passed a bill that will allow $600,000 in federal funds to be spent on improvements necessary to open Wolf Creek Lake for public fishing.

50 years ago (1970)

* H. E. Douglass, bank president, celebrated 60 years at Peoples National Bank. Harry started at the bank on March 10, 1910. The bank at the time had less than half a million of total resources. As of Dec. 31, 1969, The bank's total resources are $8,421,091.80.

* In the first round of state play, Waverly lost to Little River, 67-49.

75 years ago (1945)

* Strawn High School's basketball team won the Class B regional tournament at Osage City by defeating Miller in the finals, 35-34. Burlington lost to Highland Park of Topeka in the finals of the A bracket, 49-22.

* Gridley's newest business enterprise, Brown's Locker, located west of the Citizens State Bank, opened its doors for business. Mr. and Mrs. George Brown are the proprietors.

100 years ago (1920)

* The basketball teams of the Burlington High School took most of the glory at the district tournament in Emporia, the girls team winning first place over 17 competing teams of girls, and the boys taking second place out of the 16 teams of boys, falling to Emporia in the last half of the final game.

* The old soldiers at the Waverly G.A.R. Post are turning their equipment over to the young veterans of the American Legion.

125 years ago (1895)

* The total eclipse of the moon that occurred about 9 o'clock last Sunday evening could not be well observed because of cloudy weather, but it was noticed that the night was rendered totally dark, as if there were no moon for about an hour.

* It is rumored that a couple of our esteemed young men were in the west part of town in a state of intoxication, and that they sang some very filthy songs.
