sister, Diane Freeman and husband, Jim, Overland Park; a grandson, Quentin Yoho and wife, Hollie, Yates Center; and great-grandchildren, Aidan Yoho, Emery Yoho and Quynlyn Yoho, Yates Center.

A visitation will be held 6 to 8 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 24, in The Venue at Feuerborn Family Funeral Service, 1883 U.S. Highway 54, Iola. A funeral service will be 10 a.m. Friday, Sept. 25, at Feuerborn Family Funeral Service, Iola. Burial will follow in Cedarville Cemetery, Neosho Falls.

The family wants to express their sincere appreciation and thanks to the staff and employees of Yates Center Health and Rehabilitation for the wonderful, loving care given to Rosalie.

Memorials are suggested to Woodson County Fair Board for upgrades to the fairgrounds and facilities, and may be left with Feuerborn Family Funeral Service.

Condolences for the family may be left at www.feuerbornfuneral.com.

KDOT begins K-58 resurfacing projects

The Kansas Department of Transportation (KDOT) has started work on two projects to resurface K-58. The 15-mile combined project area begins at the west city limits of LeRoy and continues east to end at U.S. 169.

Flagger and a pilot car are guiding one-lane traffic through the work zone during daylight hours and drivers should expect delays of 15 minutes or less.

The resurfacing work should be finished in one month, weather permitting. Bettis Asphalt & Construction, Inc., Topeka, is contractor on the projects, which have a combined construction cost of $1.1 million.

Drivers are reminded to obey the signs and flaggers, and to slow down. For questions, please contact KDOT Area Engineer Darrin Petrowsky, (620) 901-6557, or Public Affairs Manager Priscilla Petersen, (620) 902-6433.

KBI seeks info on Iola man's death

The Kansas Bureau of Investigation (KBI), the Iola Police Department and the Allen County Sheriff's Office are investigating a death that occurred Monday in Iola.

The Iola Police Department requested KBI assistance at approximately 3 p.m. Monday, Sept. 21. KBI agents responded to investigate.

At approximately 2:10 p.m. Monday, the Iola Police Department received a 911 call from a citizen reporting a fight at 621 S. Washington Ave. Officers responded to the house where they found 34-year-old Jamie D. Martin, Iola, lying in the driveway. Martin was unresponsive, so officers began life-saving measures.

EMS responded and then transported Martin to the Allen County Regional Hospital, where he was pronounced deceased at the hospital just before 3 p.m. Monday.

The investigation is ongoing. The public is not believed to be at risk related to this incident.

Anyone with information related to this case is asked to call the KBI at 1-800-KS-CRIME. Tips can also be submitted online at www.kbi.ks.gov/sar.
