

LHS FALL HOMECOMING

Hein, Schrader crowned Lebo High School royalty

Katie McMurray/The Republican
Senior candidates Carson Hein and Audrey Durst, escorted by her father, Ryan Durst.

Katie McMurray/The Republican
Senior candidates Sydney Tollefson and Jerome Ferguson, escorted by Sydney's father, Ryan Tollefson.

Katie McMurray/The Republican
Senior candidates Devan McEwen and Demi Schrader, escorted by her mother, Shannone Kiefer.

Katie McMurray/The Republican
Junior attendants Darcy Simpson and Colin Whalen, escorted by Darcy's father, Matthew Simpson.

Katie McMurray/The Republican
Sophomore attendants Landon Grimmert and Anna Hasenclever, escorted by her father, Scott Hasenclever.

Katie McMurray/The Republican
Freshman attendants Corey Reese and Audrey Peek, escorted by her father, Matt Peek.

Ida Wilson
Reporter

LEBO — Lebo High School seniors Carson Hein and Demi Schrader were crowned Homecoming King and Queen Friday, Oct. 2, prior to the Lebo Wolves' football game against the Wakefield Bombers. The Wolves won, 52-6, and capped off the evening's events with a school dance in the commons area. Spirit Week activities included a parade and pep rally Wednesday evening.

Queen Demi is the daughter of Shannon Kiefer and the late Dave Schrader. She has been a member of FFA and FCCLA four years, participated in volleyball four years and basketball three years. She is a member of the Lebo Baptist Church.

King Carson is the son of Scott and Margaret Hein. He has been a member of FBLA, Scholars Bowl, student council and band four years, and National Honor Society two years. He has participated in cross country four years, basketball two years, and baseball and track three years.

Other senior candidates were Audrey Durst, Sydney Tollefson, Devan McEwen and Jerome Ferguson.

Audrey is the daughter of Ryan and Amanda Durst. She has participated in band, Scholars Bowl, volleyball and FBLA four years, NHS two years, where she is serving as president, and cheer one year. She is a 10-year member of the Blue Ribbon 4-H Club, Coffey County 4-H Ambassador for four years, and a member of the DOXA Youth Group at Flint Hills Bible Church, Emporia. She has been on the superintendent's honor roll throughout high school.

Sydney is the daughter of Ryan and Amanda Tollefson. She has been in FBLA and basketball three years, volleyball four years and cheer one year.

Devan is the son of Rob and Susan Atchison and Scott McEwen. He has been in FFA four years, NHS two years, where he is serving as vice president, FBLA and student council. He has been in football four years, basketball three years with plans to participate this year, and track one year. He is a member of the Lebo United Methodist Church and has been on the superintendent's honor roll throughout high school.

Jerome is the son of Eric and Joanna Ferguson. He has been a member of FFA four years, FBLA one year, and served as class vice president two years. He has participated in football four years and lettered three, and has lettered in basketball three years. He has participated in track and baseball three years and lettered twice in each sport. In 2018, he was selected All District 3 First Team Tight End. In 2019, he was selected District 3 First Team Tight End, All League Second Team Tight End, All

Katie McMurray/The Republican
Lebo High School Fall Homecoming King Carson Hein and Queen Demi Schrader.

League Second Team Defensive End, and All District Honorable Mention Defensive End.

Junior class attendants were Darcy Simpson and Colin Whalen. Darcy is the daughter of Matthew and Cheryl Simpson. Throughout high school, she has participated in NHS, FFA, FCCLA and FBLA, serving as reporter for FBLA three years. She has participated in volleyball, track, cheer and was a basketball manager. She is in 4-H, her local church youth group and has been on the academic honor roll.

Colin is the son of Chris and Theresa Whalen. He has been in FFA, FBLA, National Honor Society, cross country, basketball and has been a class officer two years. He is a member of the Lebo Baptist Church and is active in the youth group. Colin has been on the honor roll throughout high school, attended state FBLA, and was a member of the state basketball team two years.

Sophomore class attendants were Anna Hasenclever and Landon Grimmert. Anna is the daughter of Scott and Amy Hasenclever. She has been in FCCLA, FBLA, student council and cross country. She is a member of the Lebo Baptist Church and has been on the honor roll.

Landon is the son of Jeff and Erica Grimmert. He has been in FBLA, FCCLA, football, cross country, basketball, baseball and track and is a class officer. He is a member of the Lebo Baptist Church, and has been on the honor roll. He was selected as All Area Basketball Honorable Mention and All League Basketball Honorable Mention.

Freshman class attendants were Audrey Peek and Corey Reese. Audrey is the daughter of Matt and Gina Peek. She has been in FFA and volleyball, with plans to be in basketball, track and softball. She is a member of the Flint Hills Bible Church.

Corey is the son of Corey and Janet Reese. He is a class officer and has been in FFA, FCCLA and football, with plans to participate in basketball and baseball this year. He also plays competitive baseball for the Kansas Crush Triple A. He is a member of St. Joseph Catholic Church.

The 2019 Homecoming royalty, Melanie Reeves and Wyatt Weiss, assisted with the ceremony. Melanie attends Emporia State University where she is studying mathematics. Wyatt attends Kansas State University where he is studying pre-veterinary medicine. During the ceremony, Wyatt presented a football to Carson, which had been signed by the team. Melanie presented a crown and flowers to Demi, followed by Carson placing a necklace around her neck.

Katie McMurray/The Republican
2019 Fall Homecoming Queen Melanie Reeves and King Wyatt Weiss.

WHS Fall Homecoming is this week

WAVERLY — Waverly High School has begun its celebration of Fall Homecoming and events will culminate with a homecoming coronation ceremony Saturday, Oct. 10, followed by the homecoming dance.

Spirit week festivities began Monday for students, who are dressing up to different themes each day. Monday was Dynamic Duo Day, Tuesday was Decade Day and Wednesday was Disney Day. Thursday is Orange and Black Day and Friday is Favorite Team Day. Waverly Elementary School students are also joining in the fun. For them, the week began with Mismatch Monday, Crazy Sock Tuesday and Disney Wednesday and will conclude with Orange and Black Thursday and Favorite Team Friday.

On Thursday, Oct. 8, the homecoming parade will take place at 2 p.m. It will start at Waverly High School, go through City Park past Sunset Manor and proceed north on Main Street to the football field. After the parade a pep rally will be held at the football field.

On Saturday, Oct. 10, the homecoming coronation ceremony will be held 7:30 p.m. at Waverly City Park. Candidates for queen are seniors Macy Fairchild, Sara McWilliams and Kaylynn Vogts. Candidates for king are Michael Lehmann, Zach Skillman and Josh Rodriguez. Attendants are juniors Nevaeh Knowles and Terry Winsky, sophomores Samantha Hughes and Brady Wallace and freshmen Addison Miller and Ben Meehan.

The homecoming dance for WHS students and their dates will conclude homecoming activities and will run from 8 to 10:30 Saturday in the park pavilion.

Metal and Composition
Stone Coated Steel Roofs

- Lightweight
- Wind, Fire, Hail Resistant
- Lifetime Warranty
- Maintenance FREE
- Multiple Colors & Styles
- Insurance Savings
- FREE Estimates
- Financing Options
- References Available

LOCALLY Owned and Operated

Marc Rummel
27 years Experience
(913) 626-4411

Todd Griffin
15 years Experience
(620) 344-0661