

CLASS 1A DIVISION I STATE VOLLEYBALL

Lebo Lady Wolves are State Runners-up

DODGE CITY — The Lebo Lady Wolves volleyball team made an appearance in the Class 1A Division I state tournament at United Wireless Arena in Dodge City and returned home as the State Runners-up.

The Lady Wolves went 2-1 in pool play. They defeated Pratt-Skyline in two sets, 25-15, 25-15. They beat Central Plains/Wilson in the first set, 25-21, but then came up short in the second and third sets, 21-25, 17-25. They bounced back to defeat St. John-Hudson, 25-22, 25-21.

In the semifinal round, Lebo again defeated Pratt-Skyline, 25-17, 25-18. In the other semifinal match, Central Plains/Wilson defeated St. John-Hudson, 25-22, 25-19.

The semifinal match results set up a rematch between Lebo and Central Plains/Wilson in the championship match. The match was a hard-fought thriller, but Lebo came up short by two points in each set, 24-26, 23-25.

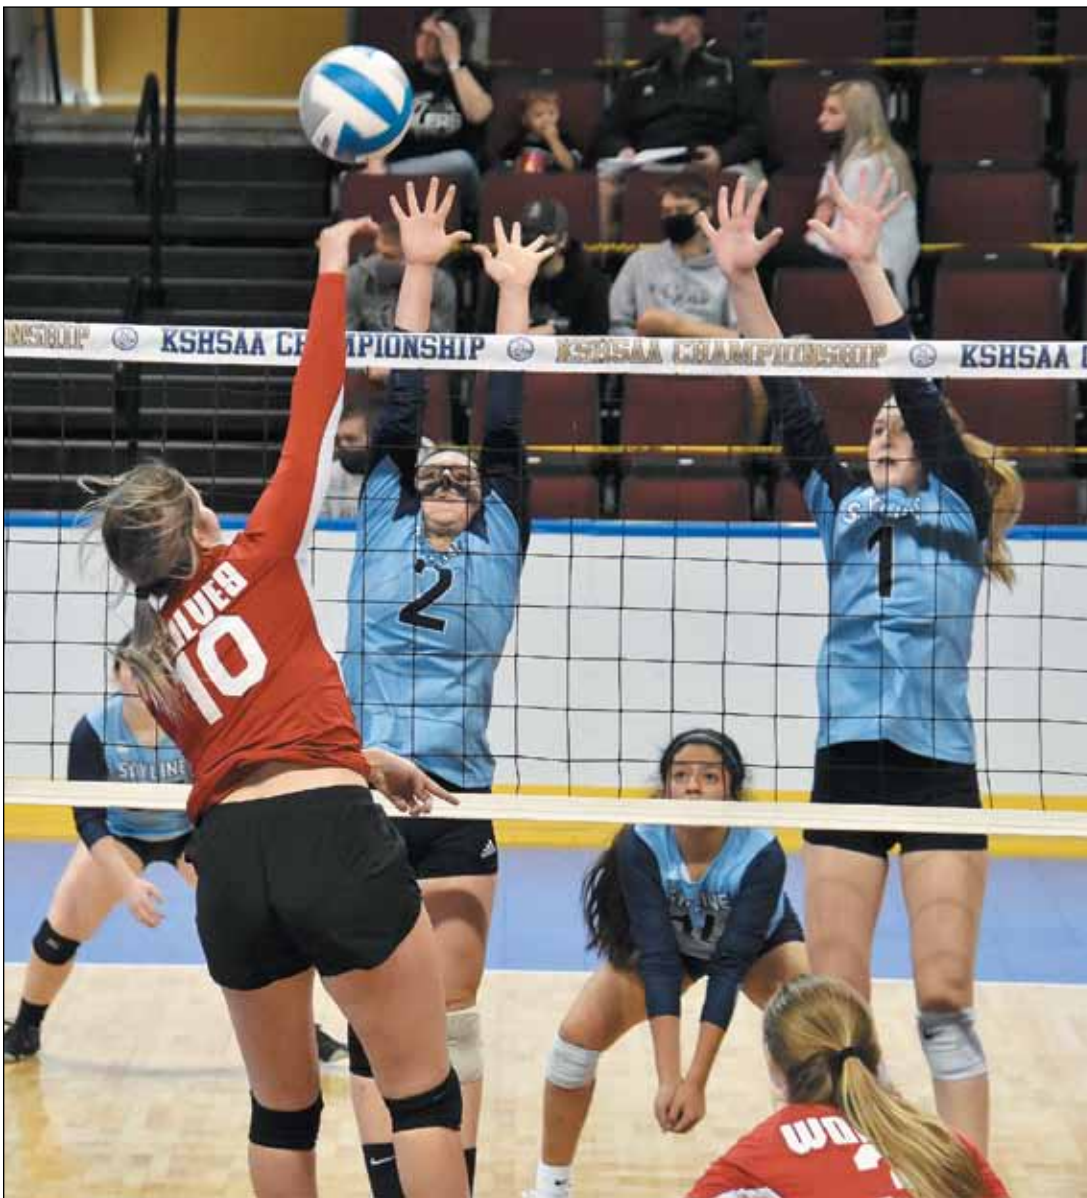

Lebo finishes the season with a 33-5 record. Members of the state team included Demi Schrader, Audrey Durst, Sydney Tollefson, Hannah Carpenter, Katie Ott, Kadyr Speer, Audrey Peek, Abby Peek, Alli Moore, Brooklyn Jones, Chalie Crouch, Keaiara Ferguson and Abbie Shields. The team is coached by head coach Gina Peek and assistant coach Tiffany Tastove-Rosine.
