Judy had many good friends throughout her life. She enjoyed going out and being social, but was also happy to spend time at home. She liked fishing, doing jigsaw puzzles, watching movies and true crime TV shows. Judy also wrote poems and was thrilled when several were published in collections. Judy was preceded in death by her parents. Frederick Dean Herrick

(Sept. 20, 1938-Dec. 31, 2020)

Fred Herrick

A birthdate and death date, but what is important is the dash in between. With Fred that dash was a lifetime well lived. He was truly loved and cherished by his family and will be missed so much.

His true love was his wife, JoAnna. He met her in Wichita when he worked at Cessna. There was no stopping those two as they married on Nov. 21, 1959, and remained so until his death. Always known as Fred and Jo, their love and devotion were an example for everyone to strive for. They created their own world atop a hill with a long drive that welcomed family and friends with laughter and FUN.

He was someone you could look up to, rely on, expect honesty and he had your back always. He could find fun and laughter in just about everything. He had a distinct way to "pick at you" until you laughed.

His interests were many but the few that stand out are attending auctions to find those special treasures, hunting and having those kids of his clean his game on the kitchen floor with his wife hollering at him, and fishing. He loved being with his kids, teaching the things they needed to know and sometimes those things that exasperated their mother. He extended his knowledge and fun to his grandchildren and taught them life on the "crick" was the best. Not only did Fred work at Cessna, he worked for many years for Standard Oil at his Dad's gas station and delivering fuel to the community. He retired from Modine after 27 years as a tool and die machinist. He honorably served eight years in the National Guard. Fred was born in Hartford to Leo and Faye (Steenis) Herrick. They preceded him in death as well as his brothers, Jim Herrick and Donnie Herrick, great-granddaughter Lydia Rose Beglau and nephew Jeff Herrick. Surviving Fred is his wife, JoAnna, of the home; children, Jacque (Chris), Sandy, Fred Jr. (Mary) and Toni (Cliff); grandchildren, Chris Jr., Mike (Michelle), Dawn (Nate), Chelsea, Kristen (Ian), Shelby, Morgan and Emily; great-grandchildren Easton, Lane, Charlotte and Jaxon; many nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

In lieu of flowers, please donate to Fred's interests, NRA and Ducks Unlimited, or your own interests in Fred's memory. Internment will be private and Jones Funeral Home, Burlington, is in charge of arrangements.
